Committee Reports:

Beverly Armwood gave treasury report. All returned checks from the Frolic will be followed up with a letter. If debt is not cleared up the family will be asked to use cash for the remainder of the school year.

Dawnette Scott will review bank statements with Beverly.

Holly Camak from ways and means reported that box top collection sheets were a big hit with the children. Holly mailed 6250 box tops. Sammy B. won the webkin.

Mary Hunter Martin reported that the book fair will be November 27, 28, 29. Tuesday November 27 the 5th graders will have pizza and drinks from 5:30-7:00 for sale at the book fair. Flyers will go home on the 9th asking for volunteers.

Alice Hunt Davis service projects reported that the food drive collection is over. 1st grade won hot dogs for most food collected. Alice can coordinate date with 1st grade teachers. Chips and buns are needed. Crock-pots are needed for heating hot dogs. Alice will deliver food to the food bank.

Dawnette Scott cultural arts reported all grade levels attended Mulan. The next performance is on January 31. It is Magic of African rhythm.

Mark Kenjarski senior partner reported mobile lap top cart would be up and running by the end of November. New computers are expected November 19. Parent info sessions dates are set. Dates are posted on the web page. Sessions held on board meeting nights Mark asks that members take a break and mingle with prospective parents. The basement will be the gathering space for prospective parents in the am. Mark wants quotes from teachers, parents, and staff about Partnership for power point presentation. Application will be on-line this year. We are listed as school of choice on the wake co. web page.

Mary Hunter Martin suggested that we paint the basement before information sessions.

Alison moved to adjourn at 6:35. Mark seconded.
